

Your School-Year enrollment at Allegro offers you much more than just a weekly class or lesson!

Music & Movement families enjoy:

- Weekly, developmentally-appropriate classes with a college musically-trained educator
- Extensive Lending Library with CDs, DVDs, books and manipulatives
- All-important bonding time for children and their adults
- Comfortable, social environment with other families in the community
- Discounts for siblings who also enroll in M&M or another class
- $15 bonus for every family referred
- Special surprises throughout the year

Private Lesson families enjoy:

- Weekly lessons with a friendly, professional instructor
- Informal studio Group Lessons held twice per year that provide per-formance skill practice, extra motivation and encouragement from peers
- Yearly studio-wide Recital & Awards Presentation
- Opportunities for additional performances at retirement homes
- One-on-one consultations to create a personal plan for optimal musical and developmental growth
- Personalized progress reports
- Up to five makeup lessons – just call or email the office to schedule
- Extensive Lending Library with CDs, books, manipulatives and more
- Up to $15 credit in our Studio Store toward lesson books and sheet music
- Studio parties, showcases and other periodic events
- Discounts for siblings who enroll in Music & Movement or another class
- $15 bonus for every family referred
- Special surprises throughout the year

